Studies from Ecclesiastes on life and living

August 8th, 2010
Today's Study:
The UNFAIR world under the sun

Life under the Sun

Prayerfully nurturing and sending discipled believers to present Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour.

Notes cont'd...

going deeper (for individual, family or small group study)...

- From your notes from the sermon, what was the one big idea that stuck out in your mind?
- Do you think the Teacher has a right to be confused and frustrated by the contrast between what he believes and what he sees in the world. Why? Do you feel the way he does sometimes?
- What do you think of his conclusion in verses 16-17?
- How would you define "fairness" in your own words?
- In what ways have you experienced unfairness under the sun?
- In what ways have you been unfair to others?
- How do you handle unfairness and injustice when you see and/or experience them?
- Read The Book of Revelation, chapter 22. In what ways does this inform your view of this world and the next as it relates to justice and fairness?
- In your opinion, how important is being able to explain injustice and unfairness to understanding God? Why?
- This week, talk to people about the Jesus coming back.
- Despite the unfairness and injustice of this world, are you able to enjoy life? What brings you the most happiness and joy?
- Read and reflect upon Psalm 46.